

Water the Flowers

Level 1 ★☆☆

3

Example

Cut the  into several pieces. Put them on the picture to water the flowers.

To Parents

While your child is getting used to cutting with scissors, place your hand over their hand to help guide them. Let them cut one “water” piece at a time while saying, “Let’s water the flowers.”

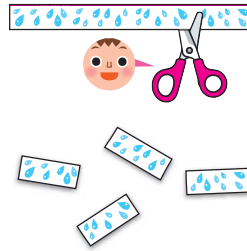

Parents: Cut this line for your child.

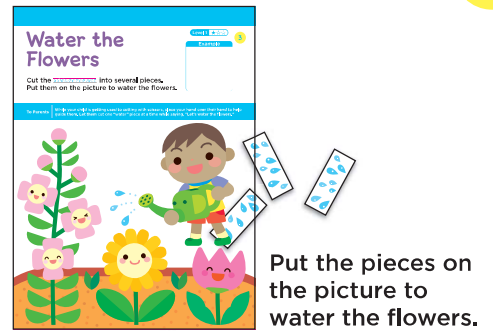

Water the Flowers

Parents: Cut the pink line. Your child can complete the rest of the activity.

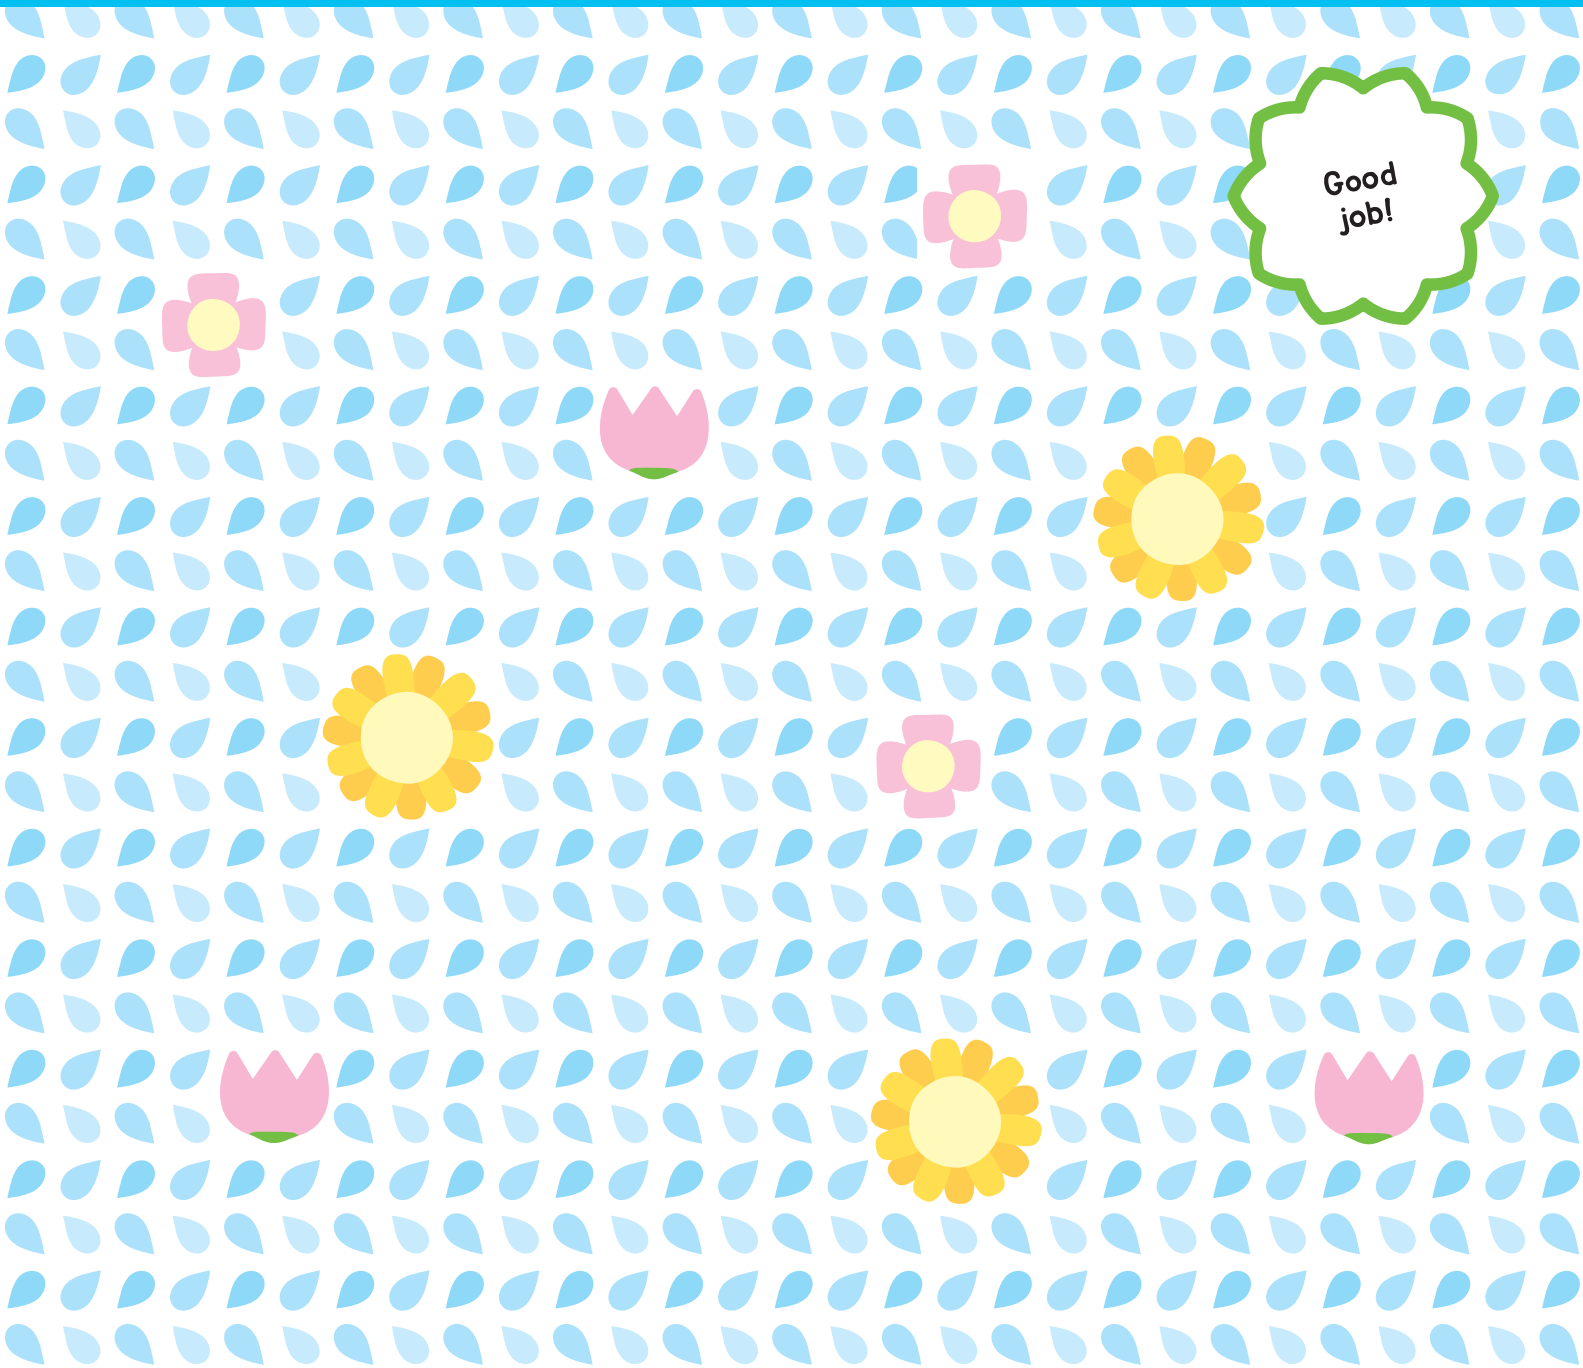

4

Cut the water into several pieces.

Put the pieces on the picture to water the flowers.

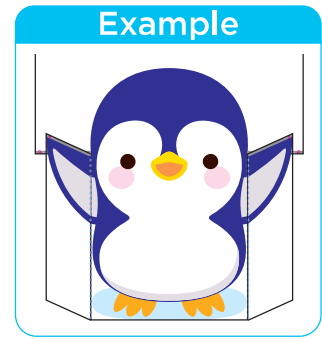

Flapping Penguin

Level 1 ★☆☆

5

Example

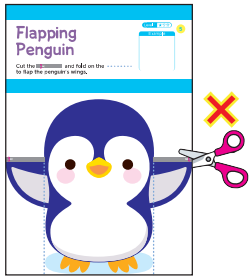

Cut the  and fold on the  to flap the penguin's wings.

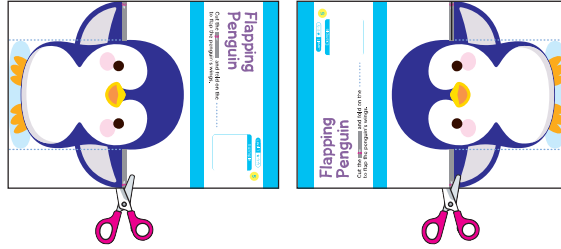

Flapping Penguin

Tips for cutting horizontal lines.

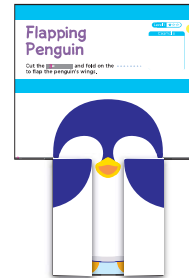

6

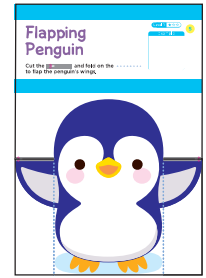

It is difficult to use scissors to cut in a horizontal way.

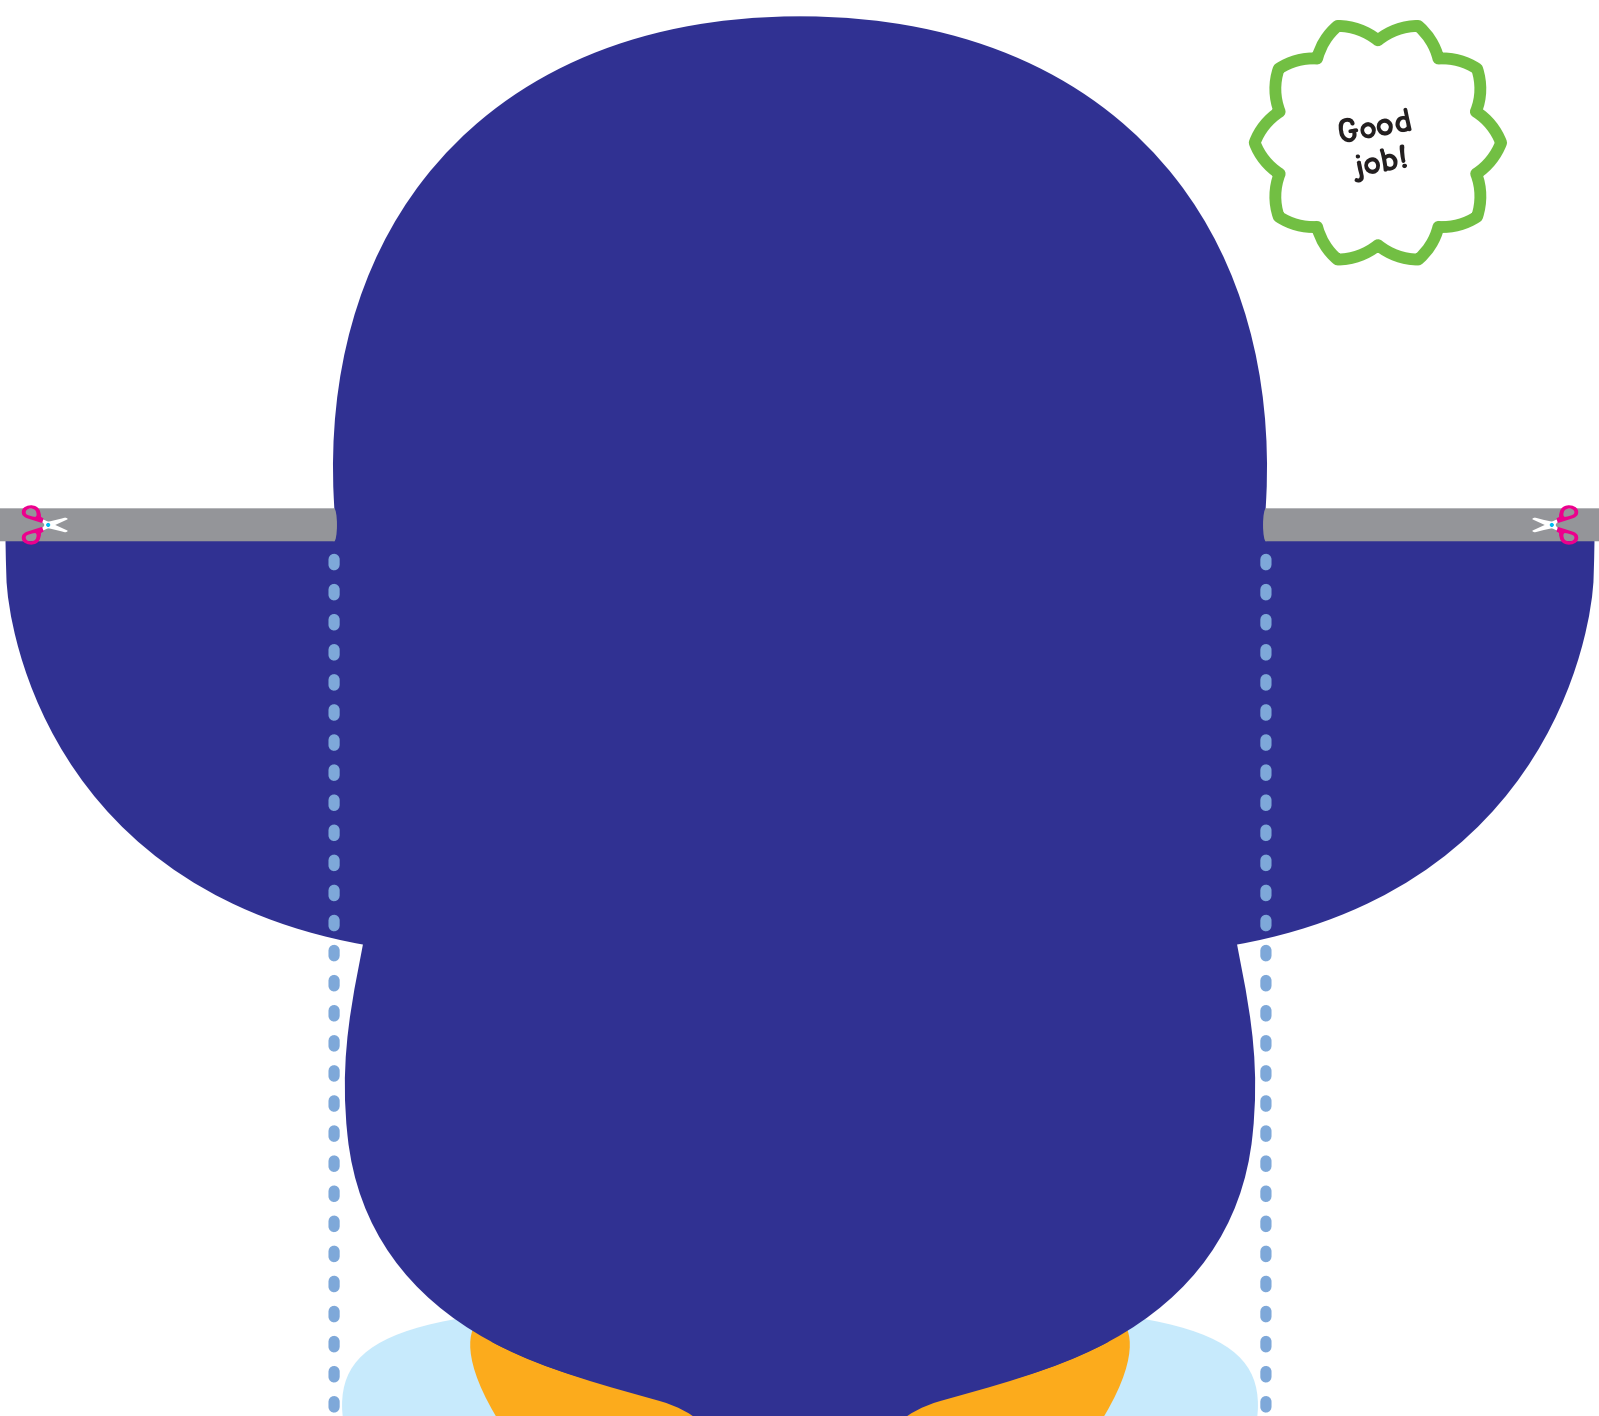

Turn the paper so you can cut the line going straight out in front of you.

Peeka...

boo!

Play the Drums

Cut the  and fold on the
to play the drums.

To Parents

Cut the thick pink line first. Encourage your child to cut the two gray lines and fold on the dotted lines. Then let them make the cat play the drums.

Parents: Cut this line for your child.

Play the Drums

Parents: Cut the pink line. Your child can complete the rest of the activity.

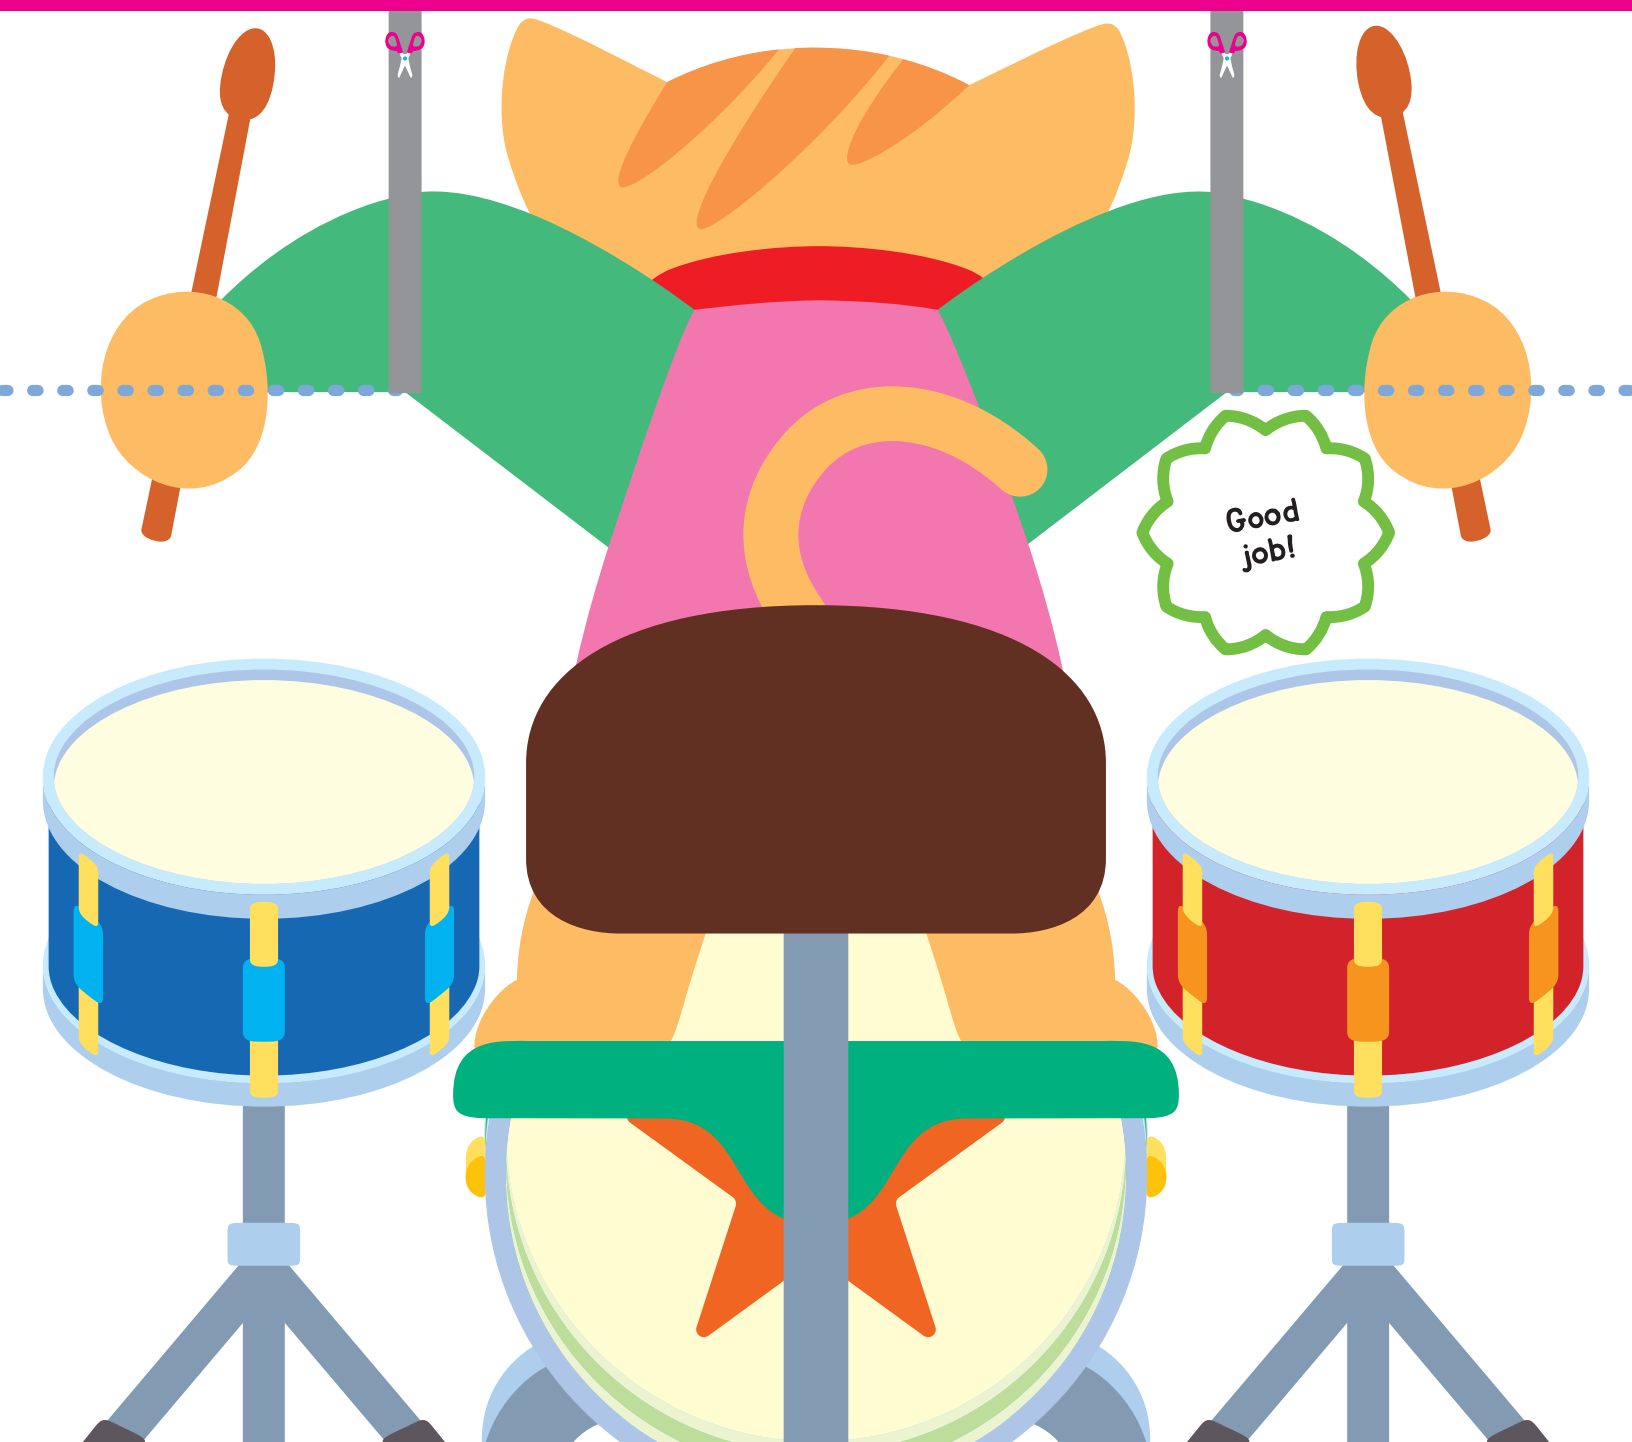

8

Turn the paper so your child can cut the gray lines vertically.

Rat-a-tat!

Strawberry Cake

Level 1

9

Example

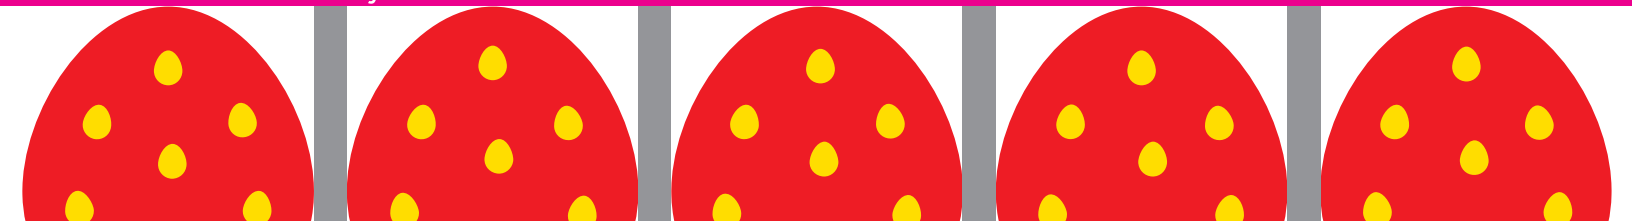

Cut out the pieces on the  along the .

Put the strawberries on the cake.

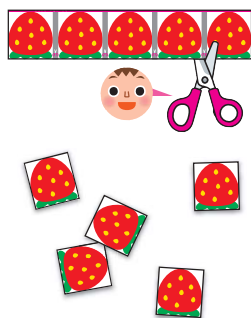

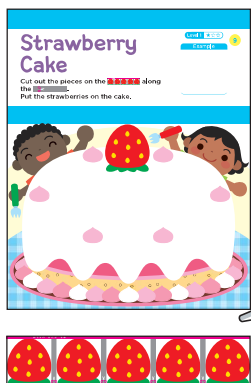

Parents: Cut this line for your child.

Strawberry Cake

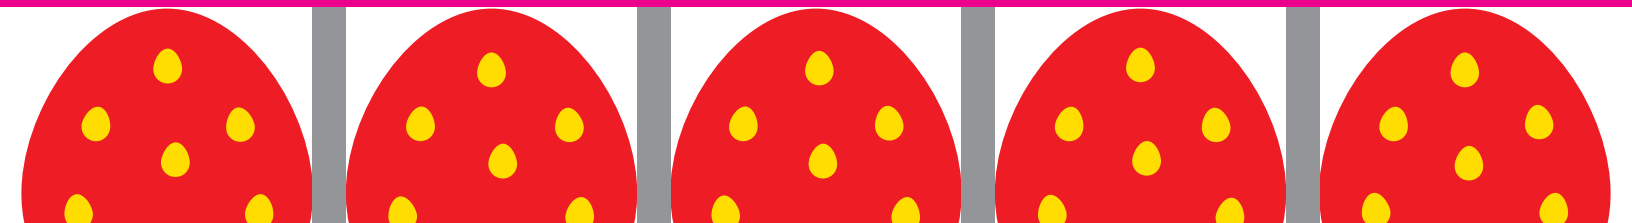

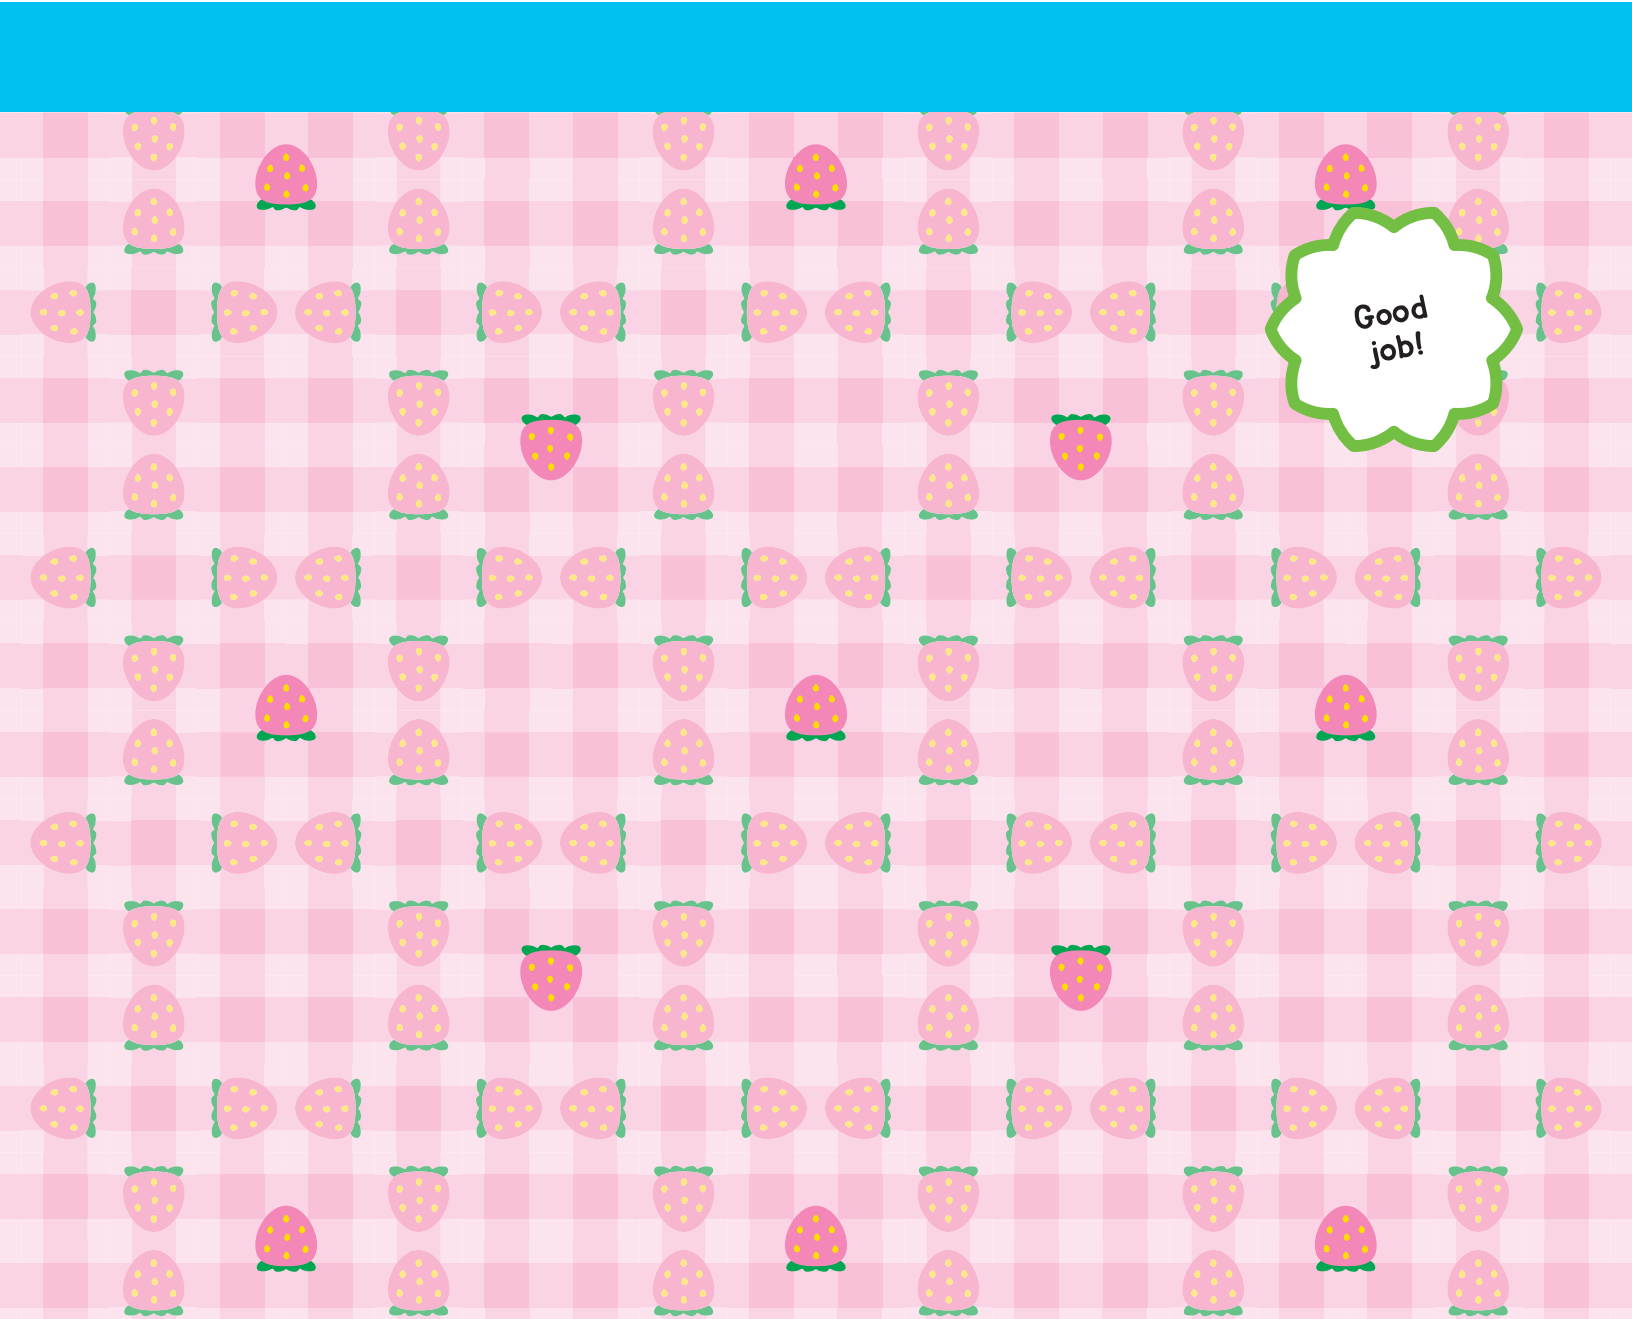

Parents: Cut the pink line. Your child can complete the rest of the activity.

Cut out each strawberry.

Put the strawberries on the cake.

Play with Butterflies

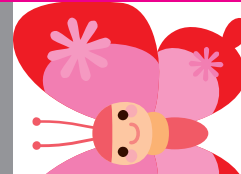

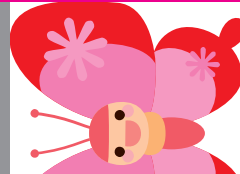

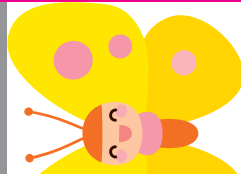

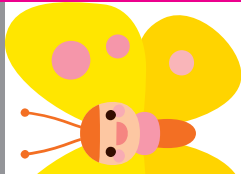

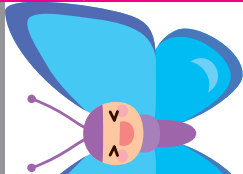

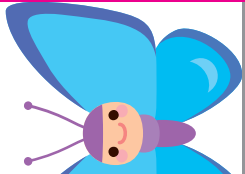

Level 1

11

Cut out the pieces on the along the .
Put the butterflies on the picture and let them fly.

Parents: Cut this line for your child.

Play with Butterflies

Parents: Cut the pink line. Your child can complete the rest of the activity.

12

Cut out each butterfly.

Put the butterflies on the picture.

Good job!

